Hall stones were as large as hen's eggs and after the storm was found to be over 15 inches deep on the ground. The damage is estimated to be at half a million dollars.

WASHINGTON NEWS -:- GOSSIP By CHARLES BROOKS SMITH.

this matter was enlisted by a promi-nent and wealthy citizen of Clarksburg, whose letter made a deep im-pression upon the West Virginia rep-resentative. The high character of the complainant insured prompt interest on the part of Mr. Sutherland, and directed him to at once start a thorough investigation of the question of ough investigation of the question of interference with the mails by foreign countries, especially Great Britain. The result will doubtless be the introduction by Mr. Sutherland of a resolution of inquiry as stated aforesaid.

The Clarksburger's letter to Mr. Sutherland which has set him to work on this matter, says in part:

on this matter, says in part:

"Dear Sir:—For a long while I have watched with great interest the manner in which our foreign mail problem has been handled by the present administration. What puzzles me is not the fact that the President has for marks two years, according to the present and the fact that the President has for marks two years, according to the president has for marks two years, according to the president has for the president has for the president has for the president presid the fact that the President has for nearly two years permitted England to steal our mail; that would be expected of him from the way he has been favoring them since the beginning of the war, but the fact that the representatives in Congress whom the people send to Washington to look after their interests have done nothing whatever to put a stop to this lawlessness, is what I cannot understand.

"It is generally understood that the United States mail is the most sacred thing in this country and that a man thing in this country and that a man committing murder has a far better chance to go unpunished than the one who tampers with the mail. Why should we be so strict with our own citizens and then permit foreigners to rifle our mails and at the same time tell us that if we don't like it we can

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 29.—
Congressman Sutherland has under consideration some form of action to bring the attention of Congress to the matter of the interference on the high seas with the United States mail. It will probably take the form of a resolution of inquiry addressed to the post-master general asking him to place in possession of the House all he has bearing upon the subject, how long it has been going on, to what extent, what action of an executive nature has been taken to stop it, and information of a like nature.

The interest of Mr. Sutherland in this matter was enlisted by a prominent and wealthy citizen of Clarkscannet be of any value to her whatever.

"My experience is only one of hundreds of thousands of just as loyal American citizens as Washington, Lincoln, or even Woodrow Wilson ever dared be.

"I frankly ask you this question:
Are you and all the other representatives in Washington doing your duty that under oath you obligated yourselves to perform and for which you are drawing good salaries, when you this to be practiced against hundreds of thousands of our own citizens who have sent you there to look after their interests."

The Clarksburger who wrote the above made a wise choice when he selected Congressman Sutherland to file his complaint with, for he began work on the matter at once, and within less than twenty-four hours after receipt of the letter, the Clarksburger will have a reply, stating what is proposed to be done, and adding to be furnished with any additional information he may have or can procure. He will also learn that while the offense charged may be as great as he says it is, he is the first person in the entire state of West Virginia to make such a complaint to the congressman who represents the entire state. To him belongs the entire credit for being the first to bring this matter to the notice of Congressman Sutherland. It is very probably that this is the first protest of the kind that has been made to any member of the state's delegation in Congress.

The President has signed the spe cial pension bills, which were origin-ally introduced in the House by Con-gressman Littlepage and which are now laws, in behalf of the following persons:

George Schultz, of Spring Hill, Kanawha county, $50 a month; Martha J. Hovey, formerly of St. Albans, $20 a month; Gus Bern, of Marlington, $17 a month; Lena Grissee, of Charleston, $12 a month and $2 a month for each of her minor children. Through the Pension Bureau, an increase for John W. Lanham, of Charleston, and accruded pension from last January.

cruded pension from last January.
William Simmons, of Hinton. came to the dity to enlist Mr. Littlepage's influence in getting his son, W. J. B.
Simmons, discharged from the army.
The soldier is now with the coast artillery in Massachusetts. Mr. Littlepage, accompanied by the elder Simmons, called on the adjutant general at the War department and laid the case before him. While no decision has been announced, the discharge of the soldier is expected.
Mr. Littlepage's bill to authorize a release of a strip of government land at Lock No. 6 on the Kanawha river, to the Charleston & Dunbar Traction Co. has passed the House. Senator Chi-ton introduced and had passed the same bill in the upper branch, but as the hills stand now the amounts for rental to be pald the government dif-fer by $25. The Senate is expected to pass the bill this week as it came from the House. the House the House.

By a personal plea made to a conference committee, Congressman Littlepage saved the bill which provides for a pension of $50 a month for Robert Hedrick, a blind soldier who resides in Charleston. The conferees had decided to strike it out, the evidence in support of Hedrick's claim. dence in support of Hedrick's claim not being of the best. It was only the personal appeal which Mr. Littlepage made to the conferees which prevent-ed the unfavorable action on the bill standing. standing.

Only by the efficient follow-up sys-tem which E. H. McDermott, Senator Goff's alert and experienced secretary ises, was a special pension bill aimed o benefit G. W. Dawson, a veteran solto benefit G. W. Dawson. a veteran soldier of Clarksburg, was saved in the house. It was introduced in the Senate by Senator Goff, who saw to it that it passed that body. In the House, notwithstanding it had been introduced last January by a majority party member of that body from West Virginia, it was stricken out. Secretary McDermott, who handles the House business of his office as directly and as competently as he does the Senate end, pulled the wires which saved to Dawson a nice monthly pension which the evidence in support of his claim shows that he deserved. Mr. Dawson, who came to Washington in person to see about the bill, expressed himself as very gateful to both Senator Goff and his competent and accommodating secretary. secretary.

The President has signed a bill, in-troduced by Congressman Sutherland, which gives a pension of $12 a month to R. Roy Hamby, of Elkins, W. Va.

The postoffice at Monarch, Kanawha

The postoffice at Monarch, Kanawha county, has been discontinued; also Wildell, Pocahontas county.

Congressman Sutherland has sent a sharp note of inquiry to the postoffice department to ascertain why W. A. Garrett's appointment as postmaster at Ottawa, W. Va., is withheld. His average leads the list.
